

POETRY.

THE PROVINCE OF WOMAN.

As some fair violet, loveliest of the glades,
Sheds its mild fragrance on the lonely shade,
Withdraws its modest head from public sight,
Nor courts the sun, nor seeks the glare of light;
Should some rude hand profanely dare intrude,
And bear its beauties from its native wood,
Exposed abroad its languid colours fly,
Its form decays, and all its odours die.
So woman, born to dignify retreat,
To give domestic life its sweetest charm;
With softness polished, and with virtue warm;
Should seek but heaven's applause and her own;
Should dread no blame but that which crimes
Impart;
The censures of a self-condemning heart.

FROM THE ST. LOUIS BULLETIN.
TO HOPE.

I'll hope for brighter, happier hours,
I'll hope for happy scenes;
For ah! 'tis hope that bright powers,
That strew the open'd grave with flowers:
'Tis her beauteous smile, her serene
That robs this God-cursed world in green,
When through her vista life is seen.
I will still hope an endless spring,
My winter may succeed;
I'll hope that time on speedy wing,
With friendly hours of rapture bring,
I'll hope—for hope indeed,
Is always near to shield the heart,
When wealth and friends and power depart.
Come, hope, and gladden in my eyes,
Whence pearls dew drops fall;
Come, cheer my heart, 'tis sick—it sighs!
Come, cheer 't won't sympathize,
In an unceasing glow,
With hearts that love, with hearts that fear,
With hearts that hold thy image dear!

WHY IS THE WINTER SO LONG?
Says Judy to Pat, "Will you tell me my dear,
Why this winter's so long? Will it end at all?"
Says Paddy, "The reason is, this is Leap year,
And the winter has leaped o'er spring, summer
and fall,
And joined the next winter, which thus forms
two,
And therefore takes up double the time to go through."

MISCELLANEOUS.

The City of New York and the State of New York.—In 1731, the City of New York comprised a population equal to one-sixth part of the whole State. From that year, for a period of about fifty years, the State gained on the city; from a period of about twenty-five years subsequent to that time, the city stood to the State in the relative position of one to ten. During the next ten years, the state ran ahead of the city, the relative population being as one to eleven. Since 1830, the city has continued to gain on the state, and the relative population of the city and state is now as one to eight. During the last five years, the increase of the state has been in the ratio of 13 to 2 per cent, of which more than a quarter part has accrued in the city of New York. There has been a diminution of the colored portion of the state since 1830. Since 1825, the number of paupers has increased at the rate of nearly 22 per cent. The foregoing facts are derived from tables prepared by the Boston Commercial Gazette.

University of Virginia.—The present number of students in the University of Virginia, is 244. Of these 173 are from Virginia, 5 only from North Carolina, 16 from South Carolina, 12 from Georgia, 12 from Alabama, 6 from Mississippi, 9 from Louisiana, 3 from Kentucky, 1 from Tennessee, 5 from Maryland, 2 from the District of Columbia, 1 from Florida, and 1 from Turk's Island, (West Indies.)

Improvement in saw mills.—We have seen a draft of a saw mill, on an improved plan, that we think is worthy the attention of those engaged in that business. Upon the new principle the saw gate is entirely dispensed with, and the saw being fastened to the pit man, carries nothing but its own weight, and of course requires less power to drive it—it being clearly ascertained that to raise the gate as much power is required as to make the cut. We are assured by a gentleman who has completely tested the new plan, that with the same power, it will make nearly two strokes to one of the old, and that it will saw more than double the quantity in the same time. Such an improvement will be of immense value, particularly to owners of mills on light streams.—A mill on this principle will be in operation in Pittsburg, in a few days, and we think our sawyers should lose no time in testing its value and utility. Mr. Charles B. Cummins, of Massillon, Ohio, is the patentee, who is ready to dispose of rights to individuals.

Beaver Argus.—At last.—Joice Heth is dead! she died on Friday last, at a tolerably good old age, having on the 5th of this month, reached the age of One Hundred and Sixty-two years! and "no mistake." She had been ailing for about a week with a cold, and went off in a quiet, tranquil manner, like the glimmering of a light in the socket.—She had good nursing and attendance.

Query.—For the sake of science, would not a post-mortem examination of this aged person be of use?—N. Y. Star.

On the 26th of January a brute in human form sold his wife, at a village near Sherborn, (England) in open market with a halter round her neck, for sixpence and a quart of cider.

Artificial Eyes of a new material.—Dr. Scudder, the well known Oculist, has succeeded in melting "Chalcodyne Enamel," with which he will manufacture his Artificial Eyes to future. He has built him a Laboratory at Brooklyn, and purposes to furnish Enamel for Jewellers, by the quantity.

Very Natural.—Married at Hobartville, Me. by the Rev. Thomas Thaw, Mr. Edward Spring, to Miss Margaret Winter. A. Thaw we find, generally turns Winter into Spring.

CONGRESS—March 11.

On motion of Mr. Leigh, the Quaker memorial for abolition in the District of Columbia was taken up, and he withdrew (by previous arrangement I understand) his proposition, assigning as a reason for the rejection of the prayer of the memorial "that Congress had no power to abolish Slavery in the D. C."

When Mr. McKean, proposed as a substitute for Mr. Buchanan's motion, "that it was inexpedient to legislate on the memorial"—this was negative yeas 2, nays 36. Mr. McKean tried this again in another shape, to wit, as a reason with Mr. Buchanan's motion to reject the prayer &c. Which also failed; the vote being 3, to 36. Mr. Calhoun then rose and assigned reasons why he should withdraw from any participation, or give countenance to the principle which was involved in the reception of this subject by the Senate. He said they decided as a principle, that all Abolition memorials should in future be received; thus, the Representatives from southern sovereignties were to be daily insulted. Under no circumstances whatever would he sanction this; he believed that it was the most fatal stab that could be given to the South.

Mr. Preston explained that he voted for this motion—as the next strongest that could be adopted by the Senate, but whenever a case should come up, in which the jurisdiction of congress over the subject was claimed, it would be a subject of some doubt, with him, whether he would vote on it, or continue to retain his seat. The question being taken, the Senate resolved, "that the memorial having been received, the prayer thereof was rejected"—yeas 34 nays 6, (Messrs. Davis, Webster, Kindricks, Prentiss, Swift and Knight)

Mr. Webster gave notice he would hereafter move to refer some other memorials to the Committee on the District of Columbia.

Washington, March 4.—Mr. Preston submitted a resolution which caused no little sensation, namely "that it is expedient, the States of Maryland and Virginia assenting thereto, to retrocede the District of Columbia to those States, with such reservations as may be necessary for this Government."

Pennsylvania.—So exasperated are the People in every section of the State, on account of the Bank Bribery Scheme, that we should not be much surprised were Judge LYNCH to take some of those who voted in favor of a recharter into his holy keeping on their return to the bosom of their fellow citizens. In fact, this has been pretty plainly insinuated in several counties—and for our own part we should not consider a coat of tar and feathers unfitting a man who would disregard the will of his constituents, and take a BRIBE from the nabobs of Great Britain. Let every man speak out plainly on this subject.

If we must have thirty Million Banks, like that in Pennsylvania, forced upon us by the money power, especially with the power to monopolize all merchandize, why not go the whole, and get up a bank of sixty millions for Massachusetts to trade in all merchandize? If Pennsylvania undertakes to regulate the currency of the Union, the other States must regulate her; and if thirty millions of moonshine is to be created by her, the other states must exclude it.

Burning in effigy.—Governor Tazewell, of Virginia, was burnt in effigy, at Culpeper Court House in that State, on the evening of the 3rd of March, in consequence of his having refused to cause the flag of the United States, to be hoisted on the Capitol at Richmond on the 22 of February.

Decline of Piracy.—An official letter from Commodore Patterson, of the U. S. ship Delaware, dated Norfolk, Feb. 20, 1836, states, that piracy is extinct in the Mediterranean, and that from information received by him from the American Consul at Madeira, there had been no act of piracy on that coast since July 1832. At St. Thomas, (W. I.) the Commodore also learned from the consul, that our commerce was safe and protected.

Melancholy Accident.—We learn that Mr. John Treadwell, of Sampson county, was drowned near his residence, on Friday last. The freshet had raised the waters of Coharie to a considerable height, and the usual footway was partly overflowed—and it is supposed by some accident he slipped from off the logs. Mr. Treadwell was a kind and benevolent man, much esteemed in his neighborhood, and has left a numerous family to lament his loss. He was about 70 years of age.—Wil. Adv.

A free coloured woman was found dead in her house in this town on Friday morning last. A Coroner's Inquest was held, which resulted in the conviction that she had died in a fit of intoxication.

Fayetteville Observer.—Mr. FOX the new British Minister to the U. States, is quite an elderly gentleman, says the N. Y. Times, devoted to scientific pursuits, and distinguished for his attainments in natural history, but of less popular manners than his predecessor, who was so much a favorite in the circles of the metropolis. But he is an experienced and prudent diplomatist, and that is enough.

The Supreme Court of the United States have adjourned, having decided 67 cases—leaving 25 on the docket.

A Post Office Department has been established in Texas, and Mr. John R. Jones, formerly a Postmaster somewhere in the United States, has been appointed Postmaster General.

A bill is before the Legislature of Maryland, abolishing the present usury laws, and fixing the rate of interest at ten per cent.

AN ASSORTMENT.

The whigs must be very hard to please, if they cannot find some ticket on which to rally. What a variety of flags they have displayed!

In Massachusetts, Webster and any body. In Pennsylvania, Harrison & Granger. In New York, and Ohio.

In Maryland, Harrison and Tyler. In Virginia, White and Tyler. In Georgia, White and Barbour. In North Carolina, White & unpledged.

Alabama, and Tennessee.

In Indiana, Harrison and unpledged. But the more the merrier (say they).—

The more horses that are entered, the more they will run at, and the easier run down Van Buren. And the beauty of the scheme is, that it will defeat the voice of the People, and consign the election to what John Taylor of Caroline called a Polish Diet. The thing, however, is impossible. The people will never consent to be battered away by "intrigue, management, and corruption."—Enquirer.

Judge White has delivered a most extraordinary speech in the U. S. Senate. His friends must blush to read it. It is undignified, illiberal, coarse and abusive. Surely never was there a public character so much misunderstood as Judge White's has been. He has always been considered a plain, kind hearted, unassuming old gentleman; but his recent course proves him to be vain, vindictive in his feelings, and the very martyr of ambition. Poor old man! His nomination for the Presidency has certainly turned his head.

Columbus Press.

Hon. Henry Clay, it is confidently asserted, will resign his seat in the Senate and retire to private life at the close of the present session of Congress. He has been driven to this resolve by recent domestic afflictions, and particularly by the death of his last surviving daughter. Strong efforts are now making by his political friends to induce him to forego his determination.

Vermont.—Acting Gov. Jenison has issued a Proclamation declaring the amendments recommended by the last council of Censors and approved by the late Convention, to be henceforth an integral portion of the Constitution of the State. By these amendments, the Legislative power of the State is vested in a Senate and House of Representatives, jointly styled "The General Assembly of the State of Vermont"—the House to be constituted as the more popular branch has hitherto been—all the Members of both branches, with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Treasurer, to be elected annually by the people. The Senate will consist of thirty members, chosen by counties, apportioned (until the next U. S. Census) as follows:

Bennington County 2, Windham 3, Rutland 3, Windsor 4, Addison 3, Washington 2, Chittenden 2, Caledonia 2, Franklin 3, Orleans 1, Essex 1, Grd Isle 1. The House of Representatives will consist of one member from each township, as heretofore.

Removal.—We learn that Elder Wm. H. Jordan, of Granville, has accepted a call of the Baptist church in Raleigh, for the term of six months with a view to a permanent settlement in that place. We sincerely hope that this contemplated experiment may prove successful—that the members of the church there may rally, that the friends of the denomination may be induced to give their aid, that brother J. may be endued with an unction from on high, that the Lord may add his blessing that Zion may arise and put on her beautiful garments. Bib. Rec.

New union meeting.—Agreeably to the recommendation of the Raleigh Association, a number of brethren convened at Roger's Cross Roads, on Friday before 5th Lord's day in Jan'y, and after prayer by Rev. H. Spivey, formed themselves into a Union Meeting by choosing Dr. J. B. Outlaw Moderator, and appointing Wm. Roles Clerk. This body will be known as the Wake U. Meeting. Bib.

A Duel.—Mr. Samuel Vinton was lately killed in a duel with Dr. Slack, at Raleigh, N. C.—N. Y. Times.

A mistake. No duel has taken place at Raleigh, N. C. for we don't how long a time. We know no such man as Samuel Vinton; nor is there any doctor hereabouts who bears the cognomen of "Slack," however many there may be to whose "practice" the TERM might apply. Ed. N. C. Standard.

It is stated in a Louisiana paper that the Camanches and other Indian tribes have declared war against the Texans, and will aid Santa Anna. Their numbers are computed at 10,000 warriors, of whom 5000 are mounted.

Pun Military.—A young ensign complaining of the smallness of his apartments at the barracks, after many attempts at a simile, compared them to a nut-shell; on which a friend congratulated him, as by dwelling in a nut-shell, he had attained the rank of Kernel.

An English Bull.—The following curious notice recently appeared on Ludford church door, Herts, previously read in church.

"This is to give notice, that no person is to be buried in this church yard but those living in the parish; those who wish to be buried, are desired to apply to me, Ephraim Grabb, parish clerk."

Categorical.—"Have you got any fish hooks?" said a gentleman the other day, to a boy in one of our stores. "No," replied the boy. The gentleman, thinking the boy should have been included in the answer, rejoined, "No, what?" "No fish-hooks," said the boy.

STEAM BOAT.

THE public are respectfully informed that the New Steamboat EAGLE, Capt. Chase, has commenced running from this place to City Point, to meet the boats from and to Norfolk, and will leave in time to ensure a passage to or from that place. No fears need be apprehended, by delay, as the boat draws but two feet water, which will ensure a run at all times of tide. Passage $1, for which apply on board, or to Feb 23. 373 At the Warf.

CHARACTER.

FROM the solicitations, as well of those who own, as those who have seen the Colts of this superior breed Stallion, I am again induced to stand him, alternately at my stable near Raleigh, and in the city of Raleigh, the next season, commencing the 1st of March, and ending the 15th of July.

CHARACTER's blood is considered by good judges to be equal, if not superior, to that of any race-horse in N. C., as will appear from his pedigree. He is a beautiful sorrel, five feet three inches high, strongly made, was got by the celebrated Old Sir Archy, his dam by the imported Druid, grand-dam by the famous Old Mark Anthony, great grand-dam thorough bred by the imported Old Jolly Roger. His Colts are large and likely, some of them have run successfully on the Turf as also has their Sire—all of which can be satisfactorily proven to any person.

Good pasturage for mares, and grain fed to them, at 25 cents per day, when at the subscriber's. For further particulars, see hand bills.

SETH JONES, February 20th, 1836. 376.

N. B.—In all probability this will be the last season Character will stand in this State, as he will be sold, or sent to the West, at the end of the season.

CLARET.

THIS splendid imported Horse will cover mares the present season, to commence 15th February, and expire 15th day of July, 1836, at the stable of the subscriber, Granville County, N. C. 5 miles north of Williamboro', and 14 miles south of Boydton on the main road leading from Oxford, N. C. to Boydton, Va. at $50 the season payable at the expiration thereof, $75 to insure, with $1 cash to be given in all cases. The insurance money will be due as soon as the mare is ascertained to be in foal or parted with.

Claret won 4 times at 3 years old, beating many of the best colts in England; and at Huntington, won a plate of 50 sovereigns at 3 heats, against horses of all ages; showing that he possessed the characteristic stoutness or bottom of his family. At 4 years old he was again put in training and won the 2nd and 3rd prizes at New Market; but early in the spring and before he had run in public, he unfortunately tore in a rack while taking his exercise, and thereby was so much injured that he was obliged to throw him out of training altogether.

Pedigree.—Claret was got by Claret to Margaret, the best 1 mile horse of his day, and one of the best sons of the famous Whalstone, his dam by that capital racer and stallion Partizan, his granddam by Gohanna, the best mile horse of his day; his great granddam by Orrille the sire of Emilius, &c. who covered at 50 g. a mare out of the dam of Rubens Selim, &c. by Alexander—Highflyer—Alfred—Engineer—Bay Malton's dam by Cade—Lass of the Mill by old Traveller—Mistakeless by young Greyhound—Dick Pierson—Barton barb mare. This it will be seen, that Claret is one of the best bred horses in the world, for besides the blood of Chateau Margaux, he traced through another, equally famous and splendid.

DR. PRATT'S

Artificial Nipple shield,

FOR the prevention and cure of Sore Nipples. The following highly respectable certificates is deemed a sufficient recommendation to those who are afflicted in this manner to try them.

From Doctor Wm. P. Dewees, late Professor of Obstetrics, in the Medical University of Philadelphia: Dr. ELIAH PRATT:

DEAR SIR: As I feel it a matter of much public importance, to possess a means of lessening the terrible sufferings from sore Nipples, I have much pleasure in being able to say, that the "Shield" you offer for the preventing and the cure of this malady, is better adapted to the purpose than any I have heretofore seen. In the two or three instances I have known them to be used, much satisfaction has been expressed; and I have no hesitation to believe it will generally succeed: I am so well persuaded of this, at this moment, that I cannot forbear to express a wish that our city, throughout the various Apothecaries, may be supplied with them.

I am yours, &c. WM. P. DEWEES, M. D.

Philadelphia, Jan. 13, 1834.

From Dr. Thomas Seawall, Professor of Anatomy and Physiology, Columbia College, District of Columbia:

WASHINGTON CITY, 4th Feb. 1834. HAVING examined the recently invented Nipple Shields, and witnessed its practical application, among my patients, I take great pleasure in recommending it as decidedly superior to anything previously known. It constitutes a perfect remedy for that distressing malady, Sore Nipples; a disease which so frequently afflicts young women.

THOMAS SEAWALL, M. D.

From Thomas F. Beers, M. D., Professor of Obstetrics, in the Medical University of New Haven, Connecticut:

Having witnessed the application of the artificial nipple, invented by Dr. Pratt, in several cases of excoriated Nipples, in which the children attached themselves to it as readily as they would to the natural ones, and received their fill with perfect ease to the mothers, I have no hesitation in recommending it as decidedly superior to any thing of the kind with which I am acquainted.
